Epilepsy

Epilepsy is a neurological disease affecting the brain. It can cause seizures. Approximately 1 in 100 students in Ontario have epilepsy. It can develop at any age and most of the time, the cause in unknown.

If your child has epilepsy:

- 1. Provide your school with a copy of notes and instructions from your child's health care provider.
- 2. Work with the school to develop an Plan of Care for your child.
- 3. Ensure that the information on file is kept up to date, including any changes in medications.

For more information, please visit: EpilepsyResource.org

kflaph.ca

Epilepsy

Epilepsy is a neurological disease, characterized by recurrent seizures and affects approximately 1 in 100 students in Ontario. It can develop at any age and most of the time, the cause in unknown.

If your child has epilepsy:

- 1. Provide your school with a copy of notes and instructions from your child's health care provider where applicable.
- 2. Work with the school to develop an individual Plan of Care for your child.
- 3. Ensure that the information on file is kept up to date, including any changes in medications.

For more information, please visit:

EpilepsyResource.org

kflaph.ca