

Scholarship Information

1. Automatic Entrance Scholarships – Universities
  - No application is required
  - Universities decide on scholarship eligibility based on marks at time of application (grade 11 marks are used when early offers of admission are made). Scholarships are re-assessed in July after final grade 12 marks are submitted. Scholarship offers can be increased – usually, original offer will not decrease, but students should review conditions of their scholarship
  - Each university has their own scholarship criteria – usually the calculation includes ENG4U plus 5 more grade 12 U or M level classes
  - Check www.ontariouniversitiesinfo.ca for Ontario university scholarship information
2. Major Scholarships – Loran, Queen’s Chancellor’s, U of T National Scholarship, Schulich
  - Each requires school nomination
  - Each have specific deadline dates
  - Each university has a major scholarship with specific criteria (not all require a school nomination)

Loran Scholarship – School can have up to 3 nominations. Students can apply for a school nomination or enter the direct pool. Students submit their draft application by October 5 to Mrs. Cantarutti and the awards committee reviews applications to recommend school nominations. A letter of reference is also required. <https://loranscholar.ca/> Final submission is due Oct. 15.

Queen’s Chancellor’s Scholarship – School can have up to 2 nominations. Students submit a draft application to Mrs. Cantarutti by November 6. The awards committee reviews the applications. Students who receive school nomination can then apply online before December 1. A letter of reference is also required. <https://www.queensu.ca/studentawards/admission-awards/major-admission-awards>

U of T National Scholarship – Students can ask school for a National Book Award nomination by October 5. Students can also apply directly without school nomination. Application is due October 22. <http://future.utoronto.ca/national-scholarship/>

Schulich Leader Scholarship – School can nominate 1 student. Students submit a draft application by January 15 to Mrs. Cantarutti. The awards committee will select one applicant and will submit the nomination by January 27. The student completes the application by February 17. Two letters of reference are required. <https://www.schulichleaders.com/>

See Mrs. Cantarutti for information regarding the application process for each of these scholarships.

3. Scholarships and Bursaries – College and Universities

- Applications required
- Each have individual deadline dates
- Volunteerism, leadership, extra-curricular, marks, financial considerations
- Some colleges and universities have a general application and then they assess the appropriate scholarship/bursary based on the criteria you provide
- Some will require a letter of reference from a person in the community or a teacher/coach who can attest to your school or community involvement
- Check the financial link of the college or university you plan on attending for the process and deadline dates.

4. General scholarships and bursaries

- Scholartree.ca, yconic.com, scholarshipscanada.com – these sites ask you to fill in a profile and then they will email you a variety of scholarship information that match your profile
- Connect to mycampusGPS.ca by facebook (facebook.ca/mycampusGPS) or twitter(@mycampusGPS)
- Scholarship Report is a monthly update available in Student Services, on the Guidance Page and also on myBlueprint in the resources section of your account.
- Check announcements for scholarships that are advertised throughout the year i.e. – TD Bank Community Service Scholarship, Terry Fox Scholarship, Horatio Alger Association, etc.
- Check the Guidance page – grade 12 – financial for local scholarships that are available to Kingston and area students.
- Ask your parents/grandparents if they are affiliated with organizations that may offer scholarships. For example, many insurance companies offer scholarships. There are scholarships for families with veterans and military members, and unions often have scholarships as well.