Pink Shirt Day

Dear parents/guardians,

On Wednesday, February 26th (Ash Wednesday), our school will be celebrating Pink Shirt Day again this year. Pink Shirt Day is a chance for us to spread a message of positivity and to remind our school community to exercise empathy in our everyday lives. As in previous years, we encourage everyone to wear the colour pink on Wednesday as a demonstration of our solidarity in living out our faith and being kind to one another.

In the spirit of kindness shown by our patron saint, St. Marguerite Bourgeoys, we have a kindness display set up near our main office. When a student is caught being kind to others, a leaf is added to the marguerite flowers on display with the hope that our display gets greener and greener as the week unfolds.

Keep calm and be kind!
