Please know that the teachers have been strongly discouraged by their union from entering into electronic communication with parents using email or social media.

Please also know that should you attempt to contact teachers using email or social media that they will not be responding to either your messages or requests. Please continue to reach out to staff via phone calls or notes to them, as well as to comment on your child's work via FreshGrade.

If you do need to email us (e.g., a photo has been requested), please send your communication to flhpmarn@alcdsb.on.ca and we will forward the information to the appropriate member of staff in a timely fashion.
