New Safe Arrivals Program

The Algonquin and Lakeshore Catholic District School Board is excited to launch the Safe Arrivals Program which will allow parents/guardians to report their child's absence in a new, more convenient way.

- Receive alerts from your school via text, email or phone
- Send and receive attendance information in a more timely way
- Enter in attendance in advance for student absences via mobile app, website or by automatic telephone system
- Choose who will receive attendance notifications including who will be able to enter in attendance information for the student
- Monitor your child's attendance through the website or mobile app
- Receive push notifications with the mobile app

We recommend that parents/guardians create an account and verify contact information
Creating an account is simple and easy
